

2011 Distinguished Service Award of Excellence

This award is to recognize the person who has excelled in the area of building a better tomorrow. There are many individuals providing service who have made a difference in this world. We are looking to recognize that person who has provided a "Random act of kindness" or actions that may be displayed on a regular basis, whether they did them on an individual basis or a larger project.

Have you -- or -- someone you know gone beyond the expected, in providing "Service" or "Assistance to Others"? This award is to recognize that person, for their contribution.

Nominations --

- Nominate
 - Yourself
 - Co-worker
 - Fellow NAIW member
- Criteria
 - Must be an IAIP (NAIW) member
 - Plans to attend the (State) Council Meeting
 - Promotes either: Education, Networking, or Service
 - Must have impacted the lives of others
 - Our recipient may inspire others to in Servicing could be through mentoring
- Judging -- will recognize of individuals:
 - Contributed in providing service and
 - Sustained a commitment to improving other people's lives.
 - The judges will consist of industry professionals from various companies and insurance agencies.

How to submit

An essay explaining:

1. The activity. The award will be evaluated based on the level of impact of the exceptional service.
2. Number of individuals impacted (not necessary to have a large amount)
3. Outcome of the action
4. What influenced the action

Explain what was the act of service and kindness in detail and how it impacted others.

Mail to:

Professional Career Institute
13246 38th Street North, Clearwater, FL 33762 OR
Email: info@centralinsuranceschool.com

Deadline: 8/31/11 5:00 pm – Deadline is strictly enforced. Applications received after that date will be returned and not judged.

2011 Distinguished Service Award of Excellence

Suggestions and Ideas -- including but not limited to:

NAIW

1. Future growth of an Association (education, membership, etc)
2. Individuals or members benefited
3. Challenge

Industry

1. Outstanding assistance of fellow employee's or employer
2. Client service – enhancing the image of our industry
3. Building a better reputation of our industry

Community

1. Volunteered for the benefit of individuals, family or organization's
2. Assisted an under-privileged individual
3. Worked with a business to provide services

Please do not limit your submissions. Our industry members should be recognized.

Sponsored by:

Professional Career Institute

Thank you for your submission!

Many individuals who deserve this award may not submit their names.
Help them to be recognized.

